

Anette Edlander – Pre-Eminence - Sweden

The Irish Wolfhound was always my dream dog from since I was a little girl. Sadly, for me, my family only allowed us to have a Dachshund and Welsh Terrier. Finally, when I was seventeen, my dream came true and I got my first Irish Wolfhound, Godinis Baldwin My Boss. In 1981 I got my second Wolfhound, Godinis Dobbin My Lad. I was fortunate as the breeder, Ulla Godin at Godinis kennel had built her kennel from the famous kennels Petasmeade and Mountebanks.

After Dobbin I got his daughter Godinis Eileen My Lady, her mother was Rovaleco's New Nightstar and from her my breeding started. I went on to breed many International and Nordic champions in the years that followed under the kennel name Pre-Eminence. The most noteworthy dogs that I have bred are INCH Pre-Eminence's Gentle on My Mind and his son Wolfsbane Pre-Eminence Black Magic. You will find these dogs in many pedigrees all over the world.

1995 I became an FCI judge and today I judge all breeds in the Sighthound Group as well as many breeds other groups. I became a single mother with twins in 1999 so my priority became judging. Due to my busy judging schedule, I now have little time for showing my dogs and I miss it very much. Any spare time I have is spent with my twins and their interest in horses and of course all my dogs. I've bred Irish Wolfhounds, Miniature Wire and Longhaired Dachshund and Podengo Portuguese Medio Wire. I really looking forward to meeting all of you. I am honored that I'm invited to judge your lovely Irish Wolfhounds.
